

Name: _____

Research: True or False

Identify if the statement below is true or false, and check the box accordingly.

1. When researching, only read conclusions and abstracts to save time.

True False

2. Using Google Scholar will give you more academic results, like papers.

True False

3. When doing initial research for a topic, debaters should start general then go specific.

True False

4. You should use debate terms (like "impact") when researching to get the results most relevant to debate.

True False

5. You should always stop after reading through Page 1 on Google results.

True False

6. Formatting a piece of evidence for debate is called a "card". This involves underlining, highlighting, bolding, and minimizing certain parts of the text.

True False

7. When writing cases, you should research first then put the pieces together.

True False